Dear all,

I am delighted to report that we now have a Day Visit confirmed which we can join on Tuesday April 13th 2010.

The school we were hoping to go Poland with via Peltours, has decided not to go on the trip. So our options were limited.

Chani Kahan who runs Kahan Travel does it as a non - profit organisation and has been extremely accommodating towards us, as a group from Watford and friends.

The price is £300 excluding any insurances and arrangements to get to Stansted Airport.

The day will have guides at Auschwitz and Birkenau and we will have Rabbi Barry Marcus as our guide.

I need confirmed figures and the commitment very quickly. I have said that I will be able to get final figures and cheques to M. Kahan by the end of this week. January 29th. I do realise it is short notice but I am sure this can be done.

I have reserved 36 spaces at this time, but in order to keep the price to £300 pp I will need final confirmation of attendance by Friday January 29th.

I have attached an itinerary of the day and there are various points that I should like to make at this time:-

- The food is Kosher, (Breakfast - lunch - evening meal)
- As you will see from the Itinerary it is a long day, with a fair amount of walking involved, therefore good walking shoes are a must and a personal pack with a drink.
- The cost is £300 pp for the day. Please ensure you have made your own travel insurance arrangements.
- Please email me with your confirmation of how many people in your personal group.
- You need to advise if you have any special requirements, maybe dietary

Looking forward to hearing from you
Best regards

Barry Freed
